

ROOTONYM®

by Jan and Carey Orr Cook

1. A person of unusually keen foresight or imagination (noun)

V

Root VIDERE(VIS) = to see

2. Sympathy or indulgence for beliefs differing from one's own (noun)

T

Root TOLLERE = to bear

3. To bring under complete control; to make subservient (verb)

J

Root JUGUM = yoke

4. To set free from the dominance or power of another; to release (verb)

M C

Roots MAN & CIP = hand & take

DIRECTIONS:
To solve the puzzle use the clues given in each box as well as in the sentences. Each word uses a letter from the MASTER ROOT.

1. Martin Luther King was a _____ with his perceptions of civil rights and human values.
2. Wouldn't it be beneficial for us all to feel _____ toward the differing opinions of others?
3. No one should ever _____ another person to hard labor and other unfair working practices.
4. Abraham Lincoln, as the nation's leader, led the effort to _____ slaves from the pain of servitude.